and maybe that's why you chose this book. As you can see, there are many preconceptions about investment banking and investment bankers. Many of. We have experience in this profession, and I do not know anyone who would say that it is not suitable for him. It can be hard to understand, but working with clients, especially investor clients, requires a lot of emotional strength and dedication. I am convinced that Wall Street investment bankers can become professionals in the world of finance, so I would not want to choose between investment and banking. I would rather be an investment banker than a Wall Street investment banker.
